Welcome Back

Welcome back to our returning families and welcome to our new families. Thank you for choosing Norris Road. You are certainly joining a great school community.

I hope that your summer break was both relaxing and enjoyable. The start to the year has been fantastic. The smiles on the faces of students returning was lovely to see and the faces of parents when they could finally put down the boxes of books. Classrooms were busy organising their equipment and spaces on Monday, setting expectations and discussing how ‘business’ will work in their rooms.

We have 3 priorities for the year within the Explicit Improvement Agenda:

• Reading – a huge focus on explicit instruction, individual learning goals and feedback of, as and for learning
• A culture that promotes learning – with a focus on attendance. We can’t help students achieve to their potential if they are continually late or not attending
• Systematic Curriculum delivery – ensuring consistency across the school, introducing a STEAM focus and consolidated units of work

Works around school

We currently have a number of major works happening around the school – some more visible than others.

• Fire hydrant upgrade – this is a mandated (through council) project to upgrade the current fire hydrant system to ensure there is enough water pressure to extinguish any potential fire situations. There will be a positioning of 4 new hydrants to ensure all buildings can be reached. The project is in its final stage, awaiting council inspection of the new hydrants. Following this, a new fire hydrant booster will be installed at the front of the school (Greenore Street at the entrance to the school).
• Air-conditioning systems + Electrical upgrade – all classrooms (except the Year 2 Modulatrs) should be up and running this week. The Year 2 Modulatrs are still tripping the power to the school. We are unsure of the nature of this concern but aim to have it rectified.
Plumbing – an issue with the flow of water from an old connection saw water leaking though the concrete at the tuckshop end of the Year 3 classrooms. This should be rectified by the end of the week and a new slab of concrete laid.

Independent Public School
Training of the Council will take place early this term.

STEAMing ahead
Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts and Maths. This is the focus of our IPS agenda. More to come as it is developed.

Whooping Cough
Please be advised there has been a case of whooping cough diagnosed. If your child is presenting with a persistent cough please see your GP and tell them cases have been reported at the school. Please advise the school if you receive a positive diagnosis.

The public health information is attached to this newsletter for your information.

Celebration of Learning
I would like to acknowledge the Norris Road staff for their dedication to learning during last week’s Pupil Free Days. We had three very busy days reconnecting with each other welcoming new staff and setting the agenda for the year ahead.

Point for Reflection
Positivity (conscious optimism) induces responsibility. This positive attitude begins between the ears. The most important thing people can control is their state of mind. A state of mind is something that one assumes. It cannot be purchased. It must be created. Thinking and acting responsibly (or irresponsibly) begins, therefore, with how a person shapes one’s own thoughts and communicates with others.

As teachers and parents, we have an obligation to help young people shape and control their thoughts, so their impulses and tendency to blame and complain don’t control them.

From Marvin Marshall – Promoting Responsibility

As we begin a new school year, new challenges will present our young people. Encouraging them to meet these challenges head on will help build resilience.

ICT NETWORK AGREEMENT

This week every student in Year 1 to Year 6 will bring home an updated ICT Agreement Form. Due to changing rules and regulations with ICT this form needs to be renewed each year. Please read this agreement with your child and discuss the importance of the rules and regulations set out for the use of ICT resources/equipment at Norris Road State School. Forms need to be returned to your class teacher ASAP. Unfortunately NO form means NO ICT usage. Thank you for your co-operation.

NEWSLETTERS PRODUCED FORTNIGHTLY
Reminder that the newsletter will now be emailed out fortnightly.
Safely First for Our Children

A reminder about parking safely around the school. To protect our children, parking in the Administration Car Park is restricted to staff, delivery vans, emergency vehicles, vehicles dropping off or collecting disabled students and parents/carers collecting sick children. There is no vehicle access to the Administration car park between 8:30 and 9:15 a.m. and in the afternoon between 2:30 and 3:30 p.m.

Therefore for safety reasons please do not use the driveway as a walkway.

NO PARKING IS ALLOWED ON GRASSED AREAS near the Administration Block.

The Drop Off Zone on Pritchard Place (TAFE Road) is a two minute drop off & pick up zone only. Parking and leaving the car is NOT permitted.

The congestion is creating a very serious safety threat. We do not want one of our students or younger siblings hit by a car. There is ample parking in the TAFE Car Park. Please keep our school a safe zone.

Protocols for Visitors and Volunteers in the School

At Norris Road, we value the contribution parents and volunteers make in our classrooms. So time spent in classrooms can be productive, there are a number of protocols for visitors and volunteers to follow.

Visitors and volunteers to the school need to:

- Sign in at the office indicating the reason for the visit and the area of the school being visited.
- Pre-arrange a mutually convenient time to meet with your child’s teacher if you have any concerns over their program/progress. (Afternoons are preferred due to the need for morning preparations.)
- Pre-arrange times with your child’s teacher to visit classrooms – it could be disruptive if not planned in advance.
- Be mindful of the need to minimise disruptions to classroom routines or individual student programs.
Whooping Cough (Pertussis)

Whooping cough (or pertussis) is a highly contagious respiratory infection caused by the bacterium Bordetella pertussis. Whooping cough can affect people of any age. For adolescents and adults, the infection may only cause a persistent cough. However, for babies and young children, whooping cough can be life threatening. Complications of whooping cough in babies include pneumonia, fits and brain damage from prolonged lack of oxygen. Most hospitalisations and deaths occur in babies less than six months of age.

In Australia, epidemics occur every 3 to 4 years. In 2011, 38,732 cases were reported nationally. The highest rates of disease were in infants <6 months of age and children 5 – 9 years.

Signs and Symptoms:

Whooping cough often starts like a cold with a runny nose, sneezing and tiredness over several days, and then the characteristic coughing bouts develop. These bouts can be very severe and frightening, and may end with a crowing noise (the 'whoop') as air is drawn back into the chest. Coughing episodes are frequently followed by gagging or vomiting. During coughing attacks, a child's breathing can be obstructed and they may become blue or stop breathing. The bouts of coughing may continue for many weeks even after appropriate treatment. Babies under six months of age, vaccinated children, adolescents and adults may not display the typical whoop. Even in adults, pertussis can cause significant problems with the cough persisting for up to 3 months, and other symptoms, such as sleep disturbance or, rarely, rib fracture.

Treatment:

Treatment is a course of antibiotics which reduces the time a person is infectious to others and may reduce symptoms if given early in the disease. To be effective, antibiotics need to be given within 21 days of the start of general symptoms or within 14 days of the start of the bouts of coughing.

Some people who have had close contact with an infected person may need to take antibiotics to prevent infection. This includes people at high risk of serious complications (i.e. children aged less than six months); and others who might spread it to these children, such as women near the end of their pregnancy, or people who live or work with infants under the age of 6 months. Seek the advice of your doctor about the need for antibiotics to reduce the risk of infection in yourself or in infants at risk of serious complications.

Transmission:

Whooping cough bacteria are highly infectious and are spread to other people by an infected person coughing and sneezing. The infection can also be passed on through direct contact with infected secretions from the mouth or nose. The time between exposure to the bacteria and getting sick is usually seven to ten days, but can be up to three weeks. A person is most infectious in the early stages of their illness. Unless treated with appropriate antibiotics for at least five days, a person is regarded as infectious for three weeks after the first sign of any cough, or 14 days after the start of the bouts of coughing.

Prevention:

To avoid passing the disease on to others, a person with whooping cough should stay away from work, school, pre-school or child care until they have had at least 5 days of their course of antibiotics, or up to 21 days after the first sign of any coughing, or until 14 days after the severe bouts of coughing began.

If people who have had close contact with an infectious person are not fully vaccinated, they may need to stay away from places where there are young children or pregnant women. Your doctor can provide advice on this.

Anyone who has been in close contact with an infectious person should keep a close eye on their own health. If they develop signs of early whooping cough in the three weeks following the exposure, they should immediately remove themselves from close contact with others until they have seen a doctor, mentioning to the doctor about the contact with whooping cough. The person should not return to work until they are no longer infectious, or another cause has been confirmed for their illness.

People who are visiting a doctor in relation to whooping cough should advise the staff either prior to the visit or immediately on arrival so appropriate infection control measures can be taken.

VACCINATION

Vaccination is the most effective way to control whooping cough. In Australia the pertussis vaccine is only available in combination with diphtheria and tetanus; and additionally the pertussis/tetanus/diphtheria vaccine for children is given as one injection combined with other childhood vaccines such as polio, hepatitis B and Haemophilus influenzae type b.

To ensure full protection at the right time, it is important that all the doses of the vaccine are given at the recommended times; although catch up vaccinations can and should be given if vaccines are delayed for some reason.

Immunisation against whooping cough is recommended as part of the National Immunisation Program Schedule and the vaccine is funded for:

- Infants aged 2 months (vaccines due at 2 months can be given from 8 weeks), 4 months and 6 months)
Be Safe

Be Respectful

Be a Learner

Queensland Health

- Children aged 4 years (vaccines due at 4 years can be given from 3 years 6 months)
- Year 8 and Year 10 student booster dose, usually given in the school immunisation program. The program for year 10 students will cease at the end of 2015.

An additional dose of whooping cough vaccine is recommended for children at 18 months of age, but this is not currently funded under the national program.

Pertussis vaccination is also recommended for women early in the third trimester of each pregnancy. This dose is funded by the Queensland government and the optimal time for vaccination is between 28 and 32 weeks; however it can be given at any time in the third trimester up to delivery. Boosting the mother’s immunity protects the newborn baby until old enough to be vaccinated at 6 weeks of age, via antibodies that cross the placenta to the baby during pregnancy.

Women who are not vaccinated in the third trimester and who have not had a dose of pertussis vaccine in the past 10 years should consider vaccination as soon as possible after delivery to reduce their risk of acquiring whooping cough and passing it on to their newborn child; however this dose will not be funded.

A booster dose is also recommended - but not funded - for any adult who wants to reduce the risk of infection and hasn’t had a pertussis booster in the last ten years. Vaccination is particularly important for people living with or caring for babies under six months e.g. Fathers and Grandparents. The vaccine should be given at least 2 weeks before contact with the infant.

Adults working with infants and young children <4 years of age and all health care workers should receive a dose of pertussis vaccine. A booster dose is recommended every 10 years.

Like all medications, vaccines may have side effects. Most side effects are minor, last a short time and do not lead to any long-term problems. Possible side effects of whooping cough vaccine may include fever, redness and soreness or swelling where the injection was given, nausea, headache, tiredness and aching muscles. More serious side effects are extremely rare but can include severe allergic reactions. Contact your immunisation provider if you or your child has a reaction following vaccination which you consider serious or unexpected.

Get Started Vouchers

The next round (Round 9) of the Queensland Government’s Get Started Vouchers program is due to open on 25 January 2017. This email contains important information regarding changes to the program for Round 9, specifically around the referral agent process.

What is Get Started Vouchers?

Get Started Vouchers is an initiative to provide up to $150 to eligible children and young people, to help pay for sport or recreation club membership and/or participation fees through registered clubs.

If the child/young person or their parent/carer/guardian holds a valid Health Care Card or Pensioner Concession Card, they can apply online as soon as the round opens. These children do not need to use the referral agent process.

Updates to the referral agent process

The department is changing the referral agent process to ensure that children and young people who can least afford the costs to participate are supported by Get Started Vouchers. To ensure that the vouchers are going to those families most in need, a new referral agent process will be implemented from Round 9.

The department now requires that eligible referral agents register with the department to be able to refer children and young people for a voucher. Further details regarding referral agent criteria and eligibility requirements are on our website, along with fact sheets for parents and referral agents. Simply Google ‘Get Started Vouchers’ or go to the information here www.qld.gov.au/recreation/sports/funding/getinthegame/getstarted/refer/.

If you have any specific questions about the program then please email the team at getstarted@npsr.qld.gov.au.

Kind regards,

Get Started Vouchers

Our general meetings are held on the first Wednesday of each month at 7pm in the staffroom and usually finished by 9pm depending on the agenda. These meetings provide a forum for parents to discuss school-related issues with administration staff. The first meeting will be held Wednesday 1 February. All students are to place their bank books into the banking bags in their classrooms. For new families who are interested in signing up, please contact Mrs Heitbaum in the Hall (Meeting Room #1) from 8:15 a.m. on Wednesday 1 February, or collect an information pack from the Café or Office.
